BOOKING:

Q: How do I book a photography session?

A: Booking is simple! Visit our Booking page, choose your session type, pick your preferred date and time, and submit your enquiry. We will confirm availability within 24 hours and send you a booking agreement and deposit invoice.

Q: What types of family photography sessions do you offer?

A: We offer a variety of family sessions to suit every family dynamic including outdoor lifestyle sessions, studio family portraits, extended family gatherings, maternity and newborn family sessions, multi-generational family portraits (grandparents included), anniversary and milestone family sessions, and seasonal mini sessions for Christmas, Easter and Summer.

Q: Where can family sessions take place?

A: Sessions can take place at our studio, at your home for a relaxed lifestyle feel, at a meaningful outdoor location such as a park, beach, woodland or city, or at a venue of your choice.

We love shooting at locations that mean something to your family the place you got engaged, your favourite park, or simply your backyard.

Q: How do I prepare my family for the session?

A: The most important thing is to relax and have fun the best family photos happen naturally. We recommend coordinating outfits in complementary tones rather than matching exactly. Avoid busy patterns. Earth tones, pastels and neutrals photograph beautifully together. Arrive well-rested, fed and in good spirits. We handle everything else!

Q: What should we wear for a family session?

A: Choose outfits that feel like YOU as a family. Coordinate colours rather than match exactly think of a colour palette with 2–3 tones that complement each other. Avoid bright logos or very busy prints. Layers, textures and accessories add depth to photos. Most importantly wear something you feel comfortable and confident in

Q: Can we include our pets in the family session?

A: Absolutely! Pets are family too and we love including them. Please let us know in advance so we can plan accordingly. For outdoor sessions, ensure your pet is comfortable on a lead in public spaces. Studio sessions with pets are also possible just ask when booking.

Q: Can we do both indoor and outdoor shots in the same session?

A: Yes, if the location allows. Many of our sessions combine a short outdoor lifestyle segment followed by indoor or studio shots. Just mention this preference when booking and we will plan accordingly.

Q: Do you offer maternity sessions as part of family photography?

A: Yes! Maternity sessions beautifully document this special chapter for the whole family. We can photograph just the expectant mother, the couple together, or include existing children and the bump for a full family maternity session. These pair wonderfully with a newborn session booked in advance.

Q: How far in advance should I book?

A: We recommend booking at least 4–6 weeks in advance, especially for weekends and peak seasons like summer and Christmas. For weddings, 6–12 months ahead is ideal to secure your date.

Q: How do multi-generational family sessions work?

A: These are one of our most meaningful sessions capturing grandparents, parents and grandchildren together creates heirlooms that families treasure for generations. We photograph the full group together as well as smaller family units within the group. We recommend choosing a comfortable, accessible location for elderly family members. These sessions are relaxed, unhurried and deeply personal.

Q: What happens if I need to reschedule or cancel?

A: Life happens! You may reschedule once at no charge with at least 7 days notice. Cancellations within 48 hours of the session forfeit the deposit. Full details are in your booking agreement.

Q: Do you travel for shoots?

A: Yes! We are available for travel locally, nationally, and internationally. Travel fees may apply for locations beyond 30 miles. Contact us for a custom travel quote.

Q: How long does a typical session last?

A: Sessions vary by type — mini sessions run 30–45 minutes, portrait sessions 1–2 hours, and full-day events or weddings 6–10 hours. Your booking confirmation will include the exact duration.

A: Edited galleries are delivered within 2–3 weeks for portrait sessions and 4–6 weeks for weddings. You will receive an email with your private gallery link as soon as it is ready.

Q: How will my photos be delivered?

A: Photos are delivered via your private online gallery where you can view, download, favourite, and share your images. You will also have access to our Conference Room for a real-time selection session.

Q: How soon will we receive our family photos?

A: Your fully edited gallery will be delivered within 2–3 weeks via your private online gallery. You will receive an email notification with your gallery link and access to your Conference Room for the real-time photo selection session with your photographer.

Q: How many edited photos will I receive?

A: The number varies by package as it was stated above. All images are professionally colour-graded and retouched.

Q: Can I request specific edits or retouching?

A: Absolutely. Basic skin retouching is included as standard. For advanced retouching such as background removal or composite edits, a small additional fee applies. Just let us know your preferences.

Q: How long do you keep my photos on file?

A: We keep your images securely backed up for 12 months after delivery.

We strongly recommend downloading and backing up your gallery as soon as you receive it.

CONFERENCE ROOM:

Q: How does the online photo selection session work?

A: Once your gallery is ready, we invite you to a private Conference Room — a real-time online session where you and your photographer review all images together. You click to highlight your favourites and your photographer sees your selections instantly, live on their screen.

Q: Will I see my photographer in real-time during selection?

A: Yes! Both you and your photographer are present in the Conference Room at the same time. You can see who is online, selections are synced instantly, and your photographer can leave notes on specific images.

Q: Can I favourite and comment on photos during the session?

A: Absolutely. You can heart your favourites, leave comments on individual photos, and your photographer can respond in real-time. It makes the selection process collaborative and stress-free.

Q: How do I access my private conference room link?

A: Your unique Conference Room link will be emailed to you when your gallery is ready. It is password-protected and accessible only to you and your photographer.

Q: What happens after I make my selections?

A: Once you finalise your selections, your photographer reviews and approves them. You will then receive your final edited images within the agreed delivery timeframe.

Q: How do you ensure the safety of children during photo sessions?

A: The safety and wellbeing of every child is our absolute top priority. All our sessions involving minors follow strict safeguarding protocols. We are fully DBS checked and child safety certified. A parent or legal guardian must be present throughout the entire session at all times. We never photograph children alone without a trusted adult present, and we never share images of minors publicly without explicit written consent from the parent or guardian.

Q: Can parents stay present during the session?

A: Yes, for all sessions involving children under 18, a parent or legal guardian is required to remain present for the full duration. This is non-negotiable and is in place to protect both your child and our photographer.

Q: How do you handle and store images of children?

A: Images of minors are stored securely with restricted access and are never shared, published, or used for marketing without explicit written consent. Parents receive full control over how their child's images are used, and can request deletion of all images at any time.

Q: Do you share children's photos on social media?

A: Never without written consent. During booking you will be asked to sign a media consent form specifying exactly where, if anywhere, images may be shared. Your choices are fully respected, you can opt out of all public sharing entirely.

Q: What if my child feels uncomfortable during the session?

A: We always follow the child's lead. If at any point your child feels uncomfortable, upset, or simply does not want to continue, we stop immediately, no questions asked. A happy child makes the best photos, and their emotional wellbeing always comes first.

Q: How do you ensure the safety of children during sessions?

A: We follow strict child safeguarding protocols for every session involving minors. This includes: a parent or legal guardian present at all times, DBS-checked photographer, signed parental consent forms before any session begins, safe posing practices for newborns and babies, and the right for any parent to stop the session at any time.

Q: Can I purchase prints from a previous session?

A: Yes! As long as your gallery is still active (within 12 months), you can return to your gallery and order prints at any time. Contact us if your gallery has expired and we will do our best to assist.

Q: What is your safeguarding policy for boudoir sessions?

A: Boudoir sessions are conducted with the utmost professionalism, respect and sensitivity. Sessions are always by appointment only in a private studio. A chaperone is available on request. A confidentiality agreement is signed before every session. Images are never shared without explicit written consent. You are always in control of what you are comfortable with and can pause or stop at any time.
